Webster, Thomas Dunn and Charles L Rhodes. At the invitation of the committee, Land Commissioner Pratt was present as being thoroughly familiar with land matters in the valley.

A petition signed by all the home steaders in the valley, nearly fifty in number was presented. This was supplemented by remarks by members of the committee urging the absolute necessity of the road and urging that the appropriation for it in the loan fund, though it is not one of the items included in the bond issue of $750,000 should be spent, or, if that were not possible, that this improvement be considered when it comes to expending what money may be saved from the specific appropriations of the $750,000 bond Issue.

Governor Carter went very carefully into the matter with the committee improvement of the land taken up. Without roads these conditions cannot policy in the matter of the loan fund appropriation. He reviewed the circumstances of the increasing debt of proved the appropriations, for these the territory, and the duty he felt under to limit that increase to absolutely that good faith to those who have unterritorial necessities.
